Gun Owners of America report: The Gun Owners of America recently released a report of 2006 legislative and legal battles waged on behalf of gun owners. The report can be accessed here: <http://www.gunowners.org/a121406.htm> It certainly appears they have done a great deal throughout 2006 to protect our right to keep and bear arms. Their Congressional rankings and ratings are superior to those of any other organization. Jews for the Preservation of Firearms Ownership, www.jpfo.org is another good group, although they tend to get distracted by tangential issues and have opposed some liberty enhancing measures. The incoming Congress will undoubtedly present numerous challenges which will need to be met with unwavering, well-funded resolve. Please consider supporting either or both of these groups.

This license may only be purchased once in the lifetime of the hunter.
